

I am very happy to participate in Indiana's privacy list. My family signed up when it was first made available to everyone in Indiana. There has been remarkable improvement in the number of unsolicited and unwanted phone calls. It is also very nice not to have dinner interrupted and weekends undisturbed as well. Please keep the law.